

10. My own loss was one Private 17th Lancers wounded.

11. I trust that I may be allowed to bring to the notice of the Major General Commanding the Division the cheerfulness of the Troops composing this Force under considerable fatigue and some hardship as well as the zealous manner in which I have been supported by the Officers of the Force on all occasions and particularly in this rapid and trying pursuit, the results of which are only not greater because the Enemy would not stay to measure his strength with me and my numbers were insufficient to cope with him "when dispersed."

12. The Officers Commanding the different Arms to whom my thanks are especially due are.

Major White, Commanding Squadron 17th Lancers.

Captain Paget, Commanding D. Troop Royal Horse Artillery.

Captain Bethune, two Companies 92nd Highlanders

Captain Baugh, 9th Native Infantry.

Lieutenant C. Payne Barras, Commanding Camel Corps.

13. To my Staff Officer, Lieutenant Wood, 17th Lancers, I am particularly indebted for his zealous and unceasing exertions on every occasion in the various duties imposed upon him in the absence of any other Staff Officer.

tion of the Brigadier Commanding Rajpootannah Field Force, the operations of the Column under my Command (strength as per margin) from the date of its quitting Nusserrabad up to its surprisal of the Rebel Camp yesterday morning at this place. At the requisition of Brigadier General Lawrence, Governor General's Agent for the States of Rajpootannah, for a Force to move from Nusserrabad for the protection of Tonk and Jeypore, I marched on the morning of the 8th instant to Burra Samba; on the 9th to Diggee; on the 10th to Jarrana; and there receiving information that the Nawab of Tonk was in fear of the Rebels moving upon his Capital, they being at Allypore, distant 24 miles. I marched on the 11th through Tonk to Bamboor, thereby effectually covering Tonk. At Tonk I received information of the Rebels being on the march from Bhugwuntgurr towards Jeypore. On the morning of the 12th I marched through Nuttwara to Jellace with the view of intercepting the Rebels: on arrival at Jellace at 3½ p. m., I found that they had moved on to Chaksoo, and that Brigadier Showers, Commanding the Agra Force, had passed through the place in pursuit. I immediately wrote to the Brigadier, who was encamped 8 or 10 miles in advance, offering to co-operate with him. With this view I moved on again at 9 p. m., and marching through the Brigadier's Camp (with whom I had an interview) I moved on to Chaksoo with the hope of aiding in surprising the Rebel Camp.

At Chaksoo, I arrived at daylight of the 13th, having completed a march of 44 miles in 24 hours, but too late to effect the object contemplated, as the Rebels had moved off.

I remained at Chaksoo for 5 hours, and it being arranged by the Brigadier that the two Columns should pursue by different routes, I marched to Gutwassee, distant 6 miles (in direction of Lalsoot) and there encamped for the night: on the 14th I marched to Lalsoot. On the morning of the 15th, having received the permission of Brigadier Honner, Commanding the Rajpootannah Force, (whose Force had marched into Lalsoot that morning) to move on the direction of Jeypore, I marched at 4 p. m. to Tonga, arriving there at 1 a. m. of the 16th. At 4 p. m. I marched for Jeypore, encamped for six hours on the road, and reached it at 11 a. m. On the 17th information of the Rebels' movements here received, was, that they were at or about Byrat. At Jeypore my Force was augmented by 172 Sowars of Mayne's Horse (New Levy) under the Command of Lieutenant Hawkins, the Adjutant of that Corps.

On the 18th, I marched to Chowmooh; on the 19th to Koojrowlee; and on the 20th at 1 A. M., to Kundee-lah. Here receiving information of the Rebels having marched to this place, (Seekun) distant 28 miles, I moved again at 6 P. M., with the hope of surprising the Rebels in their encampment.

The Force reached the vicinity of the Rebel encampment at 4½ A. M., of the 21st instant, having marched 54 miles in 24 hours. The surprise was all but complete the Rebels had no intimation of our approach until we drove in their outlying Pickets, who galloping off conveyed the first intimation of our being upon them.

The confusion heard in their Camp was very great, their Horsemen galloped off in every direction without attempting to make a stand and numbers without even saddling their horses.

I immediately moved to the attack sending 4 Guns of Captain Shekleton's Battery at a gallop to the front with all my Cavalry.

The Infantry, Her Majesty's 83rd Regiment, under Lieutenant-Colonel Austen, and 12th Regiment Bombay Native Infantry, under Lieutenant Meeredy, formed in line, moving in support.

The Artillery got quickly into action, sending shot and shell into the fugitives, but the moon-light did not admit of much execution being done.

The Cavalry, Seik Horse under Lieutenant Newall, 2nd Grenadier Regiment, Assistant to the Governor-General's Agent, and Mayne's Horse, under Lieutenant and Adjutant Hawkins, these charged and thoroughly completed the rout. They continued the chase for some hours, but unluckily missed the road which the Chiefs Tutia Topee, Rao Sahib and Prince Feroze Shah took.

Our Cavalry killed upwards of 50 of the Rebels and brought in 51 prisoners, besides a number of women. A greater number of the Rebels might have been slain, but all those who had thrown away their arms, were, in the feeling of mercy, spared, and the anxiety to capture the Leaders did not admit of time being lost in securing worthless followers.

The amount of Arms (Swords, Matchlocks, Government Muskets and Pistols) secured, is very great.

The amount of the Rebels who were encamped here is stated to have been upwards of 2,500, but I think the number greatly exaggerated, and as our attack must have greatly dispersed and disorganised the body, I trust the means of the Chiefs to harass the country may be considerably diminished.

The Force has marched upwards of 200 miles in 13 days without a single day's halt.

The conduct of the Troops has been most admirable, and nothing can be more commendable than the anxiety shown by Officers and Men to overtake the Enemy.

From Lieutenant-Colonel Austen, Commanding Her Majesty's 83rd Regiment, Captain Shekleton, Commanding No. 8 Battery, Lieutenant Meeredy, 12th Regiment Bombay Native Infantry, Lieutenant Hawkins, Mayne's Horse, Lieutenant Newall, Seik Horse, and Lieutenant Wardell, Her Majesty's 83rd Regiment, my Staff Officer, I have received the most cordial and efficient aid, and I beg to bring their names to the favorable notice of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

Lieutenant Newall, besides Commanding the Seik Horse, has, in his capacity of Political Agent, afforded me invaluable aid by furnishing most correct information of the movements of the Rebels.

I am happy to state that no Casualties of any sort have occurred amongst the Troops.

I have, &c.,

No. 346 of 1859.—His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following letter from Major General J. Michel, C. B., Commanding Malwa Division, forwarding a report from Brigadier Honner, C. B., Commanding Rajpootana Field Force, of the attack and pursuit of the Rebels under Rao Sahib.

2. His Excellency in Council highly commends the gallantry of the Officers and men, especially those mentioned by Brigadier Honner, C. B., and the good management of the Commander and Commissariat Officer by which such complete efficiency has been given to the Troops in their rapid movements in pursuit of the enemy.

2. 220 of the Rebels were found dead on the field.

Captain Phillips, 8th Hussars. The Brigadier states that Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and men, as per margin, rendered themselves conspicuous by their forward gallantry and in his detail of the Force under his Command, the following Officers appear to have commanded detachments of Regiments in the engagement.

Captain Dennis, 1st Bombay Lancers, Commanding.

Lieutenant-Colonel Heatly, 83rd Regiment, Commanding.

Lieutenant Forteach, 12th Regiment Native Infantry, Commanding.

Lieutenant Stevenson, Artillery, Camel Corps, Commanding.

3. The Brigadier further begs to bring to special notice the excellence of the Commissariat arrangements made by Captain Lucas, an arrangement, which enabled the Brigadier to give every man and horse a full ration after this arduous pursuit.

4. I fully concur in this eulogy.

2 men H. M's 8th Hussars, Killed. 5. The Casualties,

FROM BRIGADIER HONNER, C. B., Commanding Rajpootana Field Force,
 TO THE ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL,
Malwa Division.
Camp Kooshana, 11th February 1859.

SIR,
 I HAVE the honor to report for the information of the Major General Commanding Malwa Division, that the Force under my Command, in continuation of the pursuit of the Rebels, marched from its encampment at Gooanagh yesterday morning at 2 o'clock, and reached that of the Rebels at 5 o'clock in the evening at Kooshana.

2. The Rebels heard of our approach when we were about eight miles off, and instantly commenced a flight, breaking up into two large bodies, and going to the South West and South East respectively; one party is said to be under Feroze Shah, the other under Rao Sahib. Tantia Topce is reported to have left the Rebel Camp immediately after its surprise by Colonel Holmes' detachment on the night of the 21st of January at Seikur and to have gone to join the Nauna in the Terrai.

3. On entering the sandy wastes on the borders of the desert of Bikanair, I found it necessary to leave Captain Petrie's Troop of Horse Artillery behind at Dye with orders to proceed to Nagore and thence to Nussacerabad, as it would have been absolutely impossible to drag guns through that sandy country even though 8 or 10 horses were attached to each.

4. Our march from Gooanagh to this place was about 43 miles, 30 of it through a desert hilly tract of deep heavy sand. About 3½ o'clock p. m., the Rebels were said to be ahead about 8 miles, evening was approaching, and no time was to be lost. About six miles from this we proceeded at a trot, and when within three miles of Kooshana, the force was formed up, the Hussars in column of divisions on the right, the 1st Bombay Lancers in the centre in a like formation, at Squadron distance, with the Sikh Horse on the left, considerably in advance in echelon, the Detachments of Her Majesty's 53rd and 12th Native Infantry mounted on Camels in line in front. In this formation we went on at a sharp canter, the Camels keeping their place in excellent order, until we came close to Kooshana when seeing that the Rebels had taken off to the left, our front was changed in that direction, and a pursuit at the gallop commenced. After going about two miles it was requisite that the Infantry should return and hold the village and the Rebels' Camp, but the Hussars and Lancers went on at a dashing pace for about eight or ten miles, long into the moonlight, and cut up the Rebels at every opportunity, and rejoined the Infantry at about 10 o'clock at night.

5. The Patrols of Cavalry I sent out this morning to pick up stragglers, and seek for information counted 226 dead bodies of the Rebels killed in their flight, by the sabre and lance.

6. Our casualties are, one Private of the 8th Hussars killed, and one Private contused. One Trooper of the 1st Lancers killed, one slightly wounded, five of the Sikh horse missing, together with their horses. One Troop horse 8th Hussars wounded. Four Troop horses of the 1st Lancers wounded and one missing. No Officer killed or wounded.

7. 70 Camels and 10 horses have fallen into our hands.

8. The Rebels to-day are stated to be in full flight towards Arruh. I follow in pursuit as soon as I can lay in a store of flour, provisions, &c., for the Troops.

9. During the last four days the Force has marched 130 miles over tracts of deep heavy sand, most distressing both to horses and baggage animals. Yesterday the Cavalry must have gone over 65 miles of ground during the march, pursuit, and return to Camp at night. The powers of endurance evinced by the horses were astonishing.

10. I have to bring to special notice, that since the Force left Nussacerabad on the 18th December 1858 up to the present date, it has marched upwards of 800 miles, and the Commissariat has daily, with one or two exceptions, supplied to every man, horse, and baggage animal entitled to it, his full ration of food, grain, and forage, and even at the end of yesterday's operations, at night every Soldier had a good dinner of fresh beef, vegetables and biscuit, with the usual grog. These advantages I attribute to the excellent arrangements made by Captain Lucas, Assistant Commissary General, before the Force left Nussacerabad, and carried on by Captain Malcolmson, the Acting Commissariat Officer in charge, assisted by his Goumashta Dadabhoj Eduljee Soekin, on Captain Lucas' departure from the Force for other duties.

11. It is not usual to mention matters of this kind in a Despatch, but the great benefits which have been experienced by the Force from the above arrangements and the practicability of European Troops being well supplied with food, even during the most rapid operations in the Field, have induced me to bring these circumstances prominently forward for the especial consideration of Government.

12. Every Officer and man has done his duty in his own individual calling, as became a British Soldier.

13. In the pursuit there were several instances of hand to hand combat with the Sabre. Captains Phillips and Paget, 8th Hussars, Captain Carnegie my Assistant Adjutant General, and Captain Malcolmson, my Orderly Officer, made themselves conspicuous by their forward gallantry in these conflicts (the latter Officer had his charger wounded by a Sabre cut) and also Corporal Landly, 8th Hussars, Troop Havildar Major Ram Sing, and Trooper Adjoodia Pursaud, 1st Lancers.

14. Captain Baynon, Political Officer attached to the Force, has been of the greatest assistance to me in procuring information, and his attention, energy, and zeal in the cause are beyond all praise.

15. The Medical Department conducted by Assistant Surgeon Rudd, H. M.'s 8th Hussars, was, as usual in the British Army, all that could be wished.

16. The following is the detail of Troops engaged yesterday. Their admirable conduct on this, as well as on every other circumstance of service, since the Force took the Field, and the discipline that has been maintained in the several Detachments by their Officers, have been to me the source of much gratification, but it will be for the higher authorities to whom I most earnestly recommend them, to appreciate and record in terms which may seem to them most befitting the merits of these noble Soldiers.

General in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following report from Brigadier A.
Horsford, C. B., Commanding Field Force, of his having entered the Nepal Territories and having engaged and defeated a body of Rebels at Sakta

2. His Excellency in Council highly appreciates the excellent services of Brigadier Horsford, C. B., and of the Officers and men under his Command.

FROM BRIGADIER A. HORSFORD,
Commanding Field Force,

TO THE DEPUTY ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY.
Camp, Sishowah, Nepal, 10th February 1859.

Sir,

placed 16 Guns in position at Sikta Ghat where there is a ford and pass leading towards the inner ranges of the Nepal mountains.

After a severe march through forest and open country the troops came to a bend of the Raptoo. At this place I thought it advisable to detach Colonel Hill, C. B., Rifle Brigade, with the Troops named in the margin, directing him to recross the river, follow its right bank and attack the right rear of the enemy's position.

This portion of the Force had a most difficult country to pass through and for some time were under a heavy fire from Artillery, but the nature of the ground was such, that they were enabled to take advantage of a high and abrupt cliff, giving them perfect command of the enemy's Guns and its irregularities saving them from loss.

When the head of the main column reached the ford it encountered but slight opposition, the enemy having then found that their position was turned and almost immediately abandoning their guns, all of which were captured. A list of which I enclose.

The enemy's entrenchments though slight were so situated on a high bank, commanding the ford of the River which is here not only deep and rapid, but upwards of 200 yards in breadth, that they could not have been taken from the front without a serious loss.

The whole of the latter part of the operations were carried on in a dense and rocky forest where it was impossible to engage Cavalry in the pursuit.

From the information which I have received I do not believe the enemy were numerous, but a great part of them were Artillery men. Few were killed owing to their taking to the forest when the first was captured some were however overtaken. Our own casualties are almost nominal.

This march into the Territory of Nepal seems to be welcomed by the inhabitants, who feel that this column is acting a friendly part towards them. They have shown their inclination to assist the British Forces by bringing in prisoners, and betraying where Arms and plunder are concealed by the Rebels.

In obedience to the orders received from His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief the strictest discipline is enforced and every care taken to respect the prejudices of the Nepaulese people.

My thanks are due to Officers Commanding Regiments, namely Colonel Hill, C. B., 2nd Battalion Rifle Brigade, Lieutenant Colonel Sir W. Russell, Bart, 7th Hussars, Major Moir, C. B., Bengal Horse Artillery,
Major Vaughan, 5th Punjab Rifles, Major Ramsay Kumaon Battalion and Lieutenant Hicks, Command-

To Major Hughes, 1st Punjab Cavalry, my especial thanks are due, not only for his services at the head of his Regiment, but for the aid he gives me in his capacity as Military Commissioner.

To Major Dillon, 2nd Battalion Rifle Brigade, my Brigade Major, Captain Hoste, 5th Punjab Rifles, Brigade Quarter Master, and to Lieutenant Topham
7th Hussars, and Lieutenant Fryer, 2nd Battalion Rifle Brigade, who acted as my Orderly Officers during the day.

My thanks are also due to Captain C. H. F. Grime, 5th Bengal European Regiment, Sub-Assistant Commissary General, and to Mr. W. H. Ross, C. S., Deputy Commissioner.

During the day about forty (40) of the enemy's Cavalry surrendered themselves.

I have, &c.,

Preamble.

I. It shall be lawful for the Governor in Council of Bombay to remove from office any Municipal Commissioner elected or who may hereafter be elected by the Justices of the Peace in Sessions assembled, if the said Justices in Sessions assembled shall recommend such removal. In transmitting for the consideration of the Right Hon'ble the Viceroy and Governor General in Council, Letter from Brigadier General Sir R. Napier, K. C. B., Commanding the Gwalior Division, No. 54, of 31st January 1859, with enclosure.

copies of the documents noted in the margin, having reference to the attack of the Fort of Nahargurh, by a detachment under the Command of Captain F. W. Lambton, Her Majesty's 71st Highlanders, I am directed by the Commander-in-Chief to state that in His Excellency's opinion, the conduct of the party of the 71st Regiment cannot be sufficiently praised, as will be seen from the following Extract from a private letter addressed by Brigadier General Sir R. Napier to the Chief of the Staff:

"The news of the affair with Lambton's Detachment brought me down here as I reported to you.

"It is certainly marvellous to see the works attacked by that small detachment.

"The indomitable pluck of Englishmen is the secret of all their success.

"The small party, far from support, unacquainted with the strength of the Garrison and with the Country, did not hesitate to attack a place of considerable strength, and had they had a good Petard, they would have taken it.

"The best shots in India: I believe, they went to work systematically and cleared the parapets; through a chink in the strong gate they fired and cleared the gateway, and drove from two guns planted to command the entrance, the Gunners who were ready to fire on them. They had previously assaulted and taken the two outer gates.

"The place belongs to Kotah. The guns were all burst, and the Fort considerably dismantled.

"The Kotah Vakeel has come here and professes that the Killadar will be hanged when captured.

"The Camp Followers had got into the Town which was entirely deserted, in spite of Guards and Sentries posted by Major Chetwode, but on my arrival here by putting additional Guards and severely punishing offenders, I put a stop to it and the town is filling again."

Extract of a letter from Brigadier General Sir R. Napier, K. C. B., Commanding Gwalior Division, to Major General Sir W. R. Mansfield, K. C. B., Chief of the Staff, dated Camp Nahargurh, 31st January 1859, No. 54.

In continuation of my letter dated 21st instant, I have the honor to report for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, that I arrived at Nahargurh on the 23rd instant, and found the Fort in possession of Major Chetwode's Detachment which had been sent from Goomah to Captain Lambton's assistance.

The Garrison abandoned the Fort on the 21st having maintained a fire of round shot upon Captain Lambton's Detachment as long as it continued within range. I beg to transmit Captain Lambton's Report.

The Fort is very strong and had eleven guns and a Garrison of 200 men.

Captain Lambton's party consisted of sixty men of the 71st Regiment. They forced the gate of the town and the outer gate of the Fort, and only failed in storming the Fort itself, from the absolute want of means, except a few pounds of powder, to burst open the strong iron-bound gates of the inner gate-way. In this they nearly succeeded.

The conduct of Captain Lambton and his party evinced the utmost gallantry, and cannot fail to excite the most lively admiration in any person who views the formidable character of the work they attacked, although the origin of the conflict is to be regretted.

It has produced a very great improvement on the bearing of the people of the Country, who send supplies into Camp readily where they were before hardly procurable.

P. S.—The guns in the Fort were destroyed by General Michel's order, and the defences have been partially dismantled.

FROM CAPTAIN J. H. LAMBTON.

Comdg. Det. H. M.'s 71st Highland Light Infantry.

TO CAPTAIN H. O. MAYNE,

Political Assistant in Gwalior.

Dated Nahargurh.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to inform you that when 2 Officers, the detachment under my 60 Men 71st H. L. I. Command, strength as per 221 Gwalior Camel Corps. margin, arrived here yesterday afternoon, I sent to the town for provisions; they were refused, and the Kotwal threatened to shoot the first European that came into the town. An armed party under Command of a Subaltern was sent into the town to seize them. They found the gates closed and matchlocks were fired at them. The remainder of the detachments then proceeded to reinforce the first party; the gates were forced in, and the outer part of the Fort taken with slight resistance. The inner part however we were unable to take owing to the great height of the walls, and there being only one gate which is strongly plated with iron.

We therefore retired, and attempted again to take it this morning. We were unable to blow it open, owing to the scarcity and coarseness of the powder. The enemy during this time kept up a brisk fire with matchlocks and big guns. I understand that there are two hundred men, and nine or ten guns of different sizes in the Fort, the enemy were frequently summoned to surrender, but refused. I await further instructions.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) J. H. LAMBTON, Captain,

71st Highland Light Infantry.

Nominal Roll of Casualties.

71st Highland Light Infantry.—Private Charles Sweetland, severely, gun shot wound in the upper lip and cheek.

71st Highland Light Infantry.—Lance Corporal Andrew Allison, slightly, gun shot wound in the left shoulder.

A Doctor and Ammunition and supplies urgently required.

FROM MAJOR G. CHETWODE,

Commanding at Naharghur.

TO CAPTAIN H. O. MAXNE,

Political Assistant in Gwalior.

Camp Nahargur, January 23rd, 1859, 2 A. M.

SIR,

YOUR note of yesterday's date has this moment arrived. The Town and Fort of Naharghur have been in our possession since the morning of the 21st, and I am now engaged in blowing up the defences and bursting the guns. I have written to stop the only force that I knew was advancing to join us, namely, some Lancers, Royal Horse Artillery Guns, and Native Infantry that were detached from General Michel's Force, as provisions are so difficult to procure here. As far as I can learn, the Garrison of the place only consisted of some 200 men, who have dispersed in the jungle. Maun Sing was not here.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) G. CHETWODE, Major,

8th Hussars, Comdg. at Naharghur.
